

Prof. Ashutosh Sharma is an Assistant Professor of Statitics and Operations Research at the I.T.S School of Management, Mohan Nagar, Ghaziabad. He holds degrees of Master's in Statistics, Also he is Gold Medal holder in M.Phil. (In Statistics; Topic of Dissertation- Stochastic Analysis of some Repairable Redundant System Models Including Bayesian Approach) from C.C.S. University, Campus, Meerut. His academic credentials are further enriched by certifications in Descriptive Statistics with R-Softwar from IIT Madras, Certification in Applied Statistics & Econometrics from IIT Kanpur.

With over 12 years of experience in academia and research, Prof. Sharma has made substantial contributions to both national and international journals and conferences. He is widely recognized for his research in the area of Gold Price against Dollar in International Market. He is actively conducts hands-on training sessions for students and faculty in SPSS and AMOS.

Prof. Sharma expertise spans across Business Statistics, Operations Research, Operations Management, Business Research Methodology, and Decision-Making using SPSS & Excel. He is especially known for his proficiency in Data Analysis using SPSS, AMOS & Excel. As an author, he has written a book on Operations Research, offering practical insights and academic guidance to management students and professionals alike.

His teaching philosophy emphasizes Observation, Critical thinking, Innovation and Practical application, ensuring his students are industry-ready and future-focused.